Kevington Hall is one of London's best kept secrets and it can all be yours to share.

THE STORY OF KEVINGTON HALL

.02

The story of Kevington Hall begins in the 18th Century when architect Sir Robert Taylor designed and built this imposing mansion in a quintessential Georgian style.

To this day, the Hall remains a private country house, offering couples and their chosen guests a taste of a glamorous country estate without leaving London.

With 150 acres to call your own and utter seclusion, you can be yourself here. Bring your own style and your own vision to life at Kevington Hall.

Now available for exclusive weddings, Kevington Hall begins a new chapter. Your wedding should be yours and yours alone so we don't force you into a package and we limit the number of couples we work with every year. You're special to us and we believe that your wedding should allow you to be true to yourselves.

With a selection of distinctive settings for your ceremony and options galore for the party of a lifetime, Kevington Hall allows you to host an unforgettable wedding day. Whether you're planning a large affair or a more intimate event, you can bring your plans to life in luxury with us.

Create your memories at Kevington Hall.

WEDDING CEREMONIES

.03

Your wedding ceremony is, quite simply, the focal point of your celebration. Kevington Hall offers you a number of licensed areas for ceremonies, giving you the chance to choose the space that provides the perfect backdrop for your vows.

You could choose our beautiful main ceremony room. Seating up to 90 guests, this historic setting provides a real sense of occasion and is a suitably special location for a life-changing event. If you're planning a more intimate wedding, slightly smaller ceremonies of up to 60 guests can be held in the Main Hall.

Staying within the Hall itself, our charming Drawing Room can accommodate a maximum of 70 ceremony guests or you can use this room for post-ceremony drinks if you prefer. Of course, if the weather is fine, you can step outside into our gardens with a glass in hand and enjoy all the parkland has to offer as you spend time with your guests. You'll also be spoilt for choice when it comes to settings for your wedding photographs too.

For something a little different, the Enchanted Forest is also licensed for ceremonies and you can share your special moment here with up to 150 of your friends and family. Built inside the Victorian area of the Hall itself, you'll find yourself entertain another world as you enter this extraordinary space. This is the place for a ceremony that's definitely unlike any other.

WEDDING RECEPTIONS

.04

Your wedding reception at Kevington Hall can be absolutely anything you want it to be and we don't like to put any limits on your creativity.

The house and grounds are exclusively yours so if you'd like a sophisticated wedding breakfast followed by an evening of dancing in an elegant marquee, that can be arranged. If you'd prefer street food stalls, fairground rides and a laidback festival vibe to your celebrations, we know just the right suppliers to bring your plans to life. Our Lost & Found bar is the perfect focal point, whatever your wedding style. Full of quirky, original features and staffed by the best bar staff around, it's a total wedding must-have.

Kevington Hall also has its own secret garden because hidden beyond the South Lawn is the Moon Garden and here, you can host the ultimate pool party. A wood-fired hot tub sits alongside the heated pool and our three signature yurts can be used for all manner of activities. Enjoy a drink, catch up with friends or simply relax in the sun as your wedding playlist sets the backdrop for your festivities.

For the most remarkable wedding reception you can imagine, just step into the Enchanted Forest. Climb through a doll's house door and find yourself in a private nightclub that's unlike anything you'll ever have seen before. Lasers, confetti cannons, a full bar set-up and a top notch sound system make this THE place to party into the night, surrounded by your friends and family - you're going to love this.

CREATING YOUR WEDDING

Kevington Hall is all about individuality. We offer a choice of unique spaces to couples and combine this with a flexible, personal approach.

Because the Hall only hosts a limited number of weddings every year, we've got the time to get to know you and your wedding plans in detail. If you'd like to know what works here and what we've seen before, we're more than happy to share our experiences. If you're keen to create a wedding day that brings your own style to the event, we'd love to be there with you. Whatever you want your wedding day to be, Kevington Hall offers you a venue that's unlike anything else you'll find in London or beyond.

Whether you're following a more traditional wedding format or forging your own path, our bespoke style means that everything is possible. If there's something you're keen to incorporate in your plans or something specific that you really want to include, just let us know. We can recommend suppliers to you but you're not obliged to do as we suggest - this is your wedding day and we never forget that.

When you choose to host your wedding at Kevington Hall, you're inviting your guests to a private house and whilst you're with us, we want you to feel utterly at home. There's no pressure to include any elements if they don't suit you and every encouragement to include all the things that you love most in your day. This is your chance to plan a wedding that's yours and yours alone.
